Tapioca

Soft and chewy

These are also commonly known as boba, or pearls, and are most often found in milk tea drinks but also are great as a topping for frozen yogurt or snow ice. It is very popular because of its chewy texture.

Popping Boba

Popping boba is also known as bursting boba (boba being the chewy tapioca pearls commonly found in boba milk tea). Similar in size, these juice balls add another dimension of flavor! Its clear skin is made of seaweed extract and the inside is filled with real fruit juice flavor. Throw it in on top of your dessert or in an iced drink! They'll surprise you with their delicious flavor.
